MARCONI STADIUM - KICK-OFF 3.00 PM

CARPENE' MALVOLT

CONEGLIANO — ITALIA

FAMOUS SINCE 1868

PROSECCO SPUMANTE D.O.C.G.:

A sparkling wine, medium dry and particularly fruity, obtained, through natural fermentation, from grapes of "Prosecco" vineyards growing on the hills between Conegliano and Valdobbiadene on the left of River Piave.

BRUT: A classical sparkling wine already appreciated on the international markets. Since the last century its classical "black label" is known and requested by the most severe judges. It is dry and mellow.

BRANDY RISERVA: Aromatic, dry and mellow at the same time. It is distilled from first quality wines and aged for many years in oakwood barrels.

VECCHIA GRAPPA: Delicate and harmonious, is the typical Venetum distillate. It has an excellent clearness obtained - thanks to an experience of centuries - from chosen dregs of pressed wines. It is aged in oakwood barrels.

The Coach Comments

by LES SCHEINFLUG

Without playing as well as we can, Marconi picked up four valuable points from our most recent Philips League games against Footscray, Canberra City and South Melbourne.

Form lapses are understandable at this stage of the PSL competition because there is tremendous tension every time the Marconi players take the field. It's tough at the top.

Against Footscray, we lost Gary Byrne, who was sent off. So with only 10 men, the 0-0 draw wasn't a bad result for Marconi.

By the way, some supporters were not too happy about Roberto Vieri being substituted in that match. There was a good reason for it. Once it became clear that we would be glad to settle for a draw, I felt the defence had to be tightened. Vieri is a player who likes to roam — he is NOT a defensive player. So I brought on Berti Mariani with the specific instruction to stick to a Footscray danger man.

Everything worked out well even if some of Roberto's fans might have been upset.

The Canberra City match produced another draw, this time 1-1. Marconi had two or three great scoring chances early on but did not score. When Canberra took the lead, things looked pretty bad for us.

Again, however, we picked up a point. Marconi's equalising goal proved that my players have the character to fight back when all seems lost.

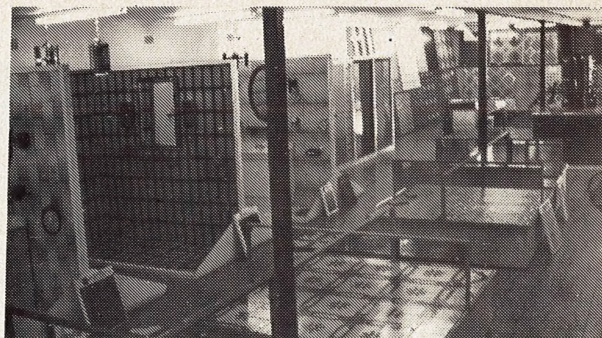

Our win against South Melbourne was probably the most important result of the whole season for Marconi. This was one match we couldn't afford to lose. Had we been beaten, the other title challengers would have crept that much closer to Marconi.

So we go into today's game against West Adelaide with an encouraging six points lead on the field. I'll be delighted if that lead is stretched to eight points this afternoon.

It can be done, providing the Marconi players steady things down and stop worrying about making mistakes. We must slow down our game, regain early-season composure and serve up the sort of football we were playing before all the tensions crept into Marconi's performances.

Marconi Should Be Happy....But !

by DAVID JACK (Sydney Sun).

Marconi will surely be happy that the return international match between Australia and New Zealand has been put off indefinitely.

This season's representative fixtures have made heavy calls on Marconi men. It is a great honour, as Soccer president Tony Labbozzetta says, for up to seven Marconi players to be in demand for the national squad, but it can seriously upset club training.

Mr Labbozzetta and coach Les Scheinflug will be relieved to know that players like Paul Degney, Tony Henderson, Ivo Prskalo, Mark Jankovics, Gary Byrne, Eddie Krncevic and Peter Sharne are not going to be taken away by Rudi Gutendorf for in-camp training for the New Zealand fixture.

Yet, Gutendorf is right to select the players he regards as the best available . . . even if one club (like Marconi) is heavily hit. It would be ridiculous if, as has been suggested, a limit of two or three players per club is placed on national team selections.

Something will have to be done to sort out the ancient club v country controversy. Next year, a very heavy programme of representative games is planned and this could play havoc with club competitions, in particular the Philips League.

It is a problem which has baffled Soccer legislators all over the world for many years. Perhaps we are expecting too much when we suggest it can be solved in Australia.

But I still feel the return game against New Zealand should have been fitted in this year, even if the players had to miss out on extensive pre-match training.

After New Zealand's surprise victory over Australia in Auckland, the stage was set for a crowd-pleasing return match here. I think it would have pulled in a good crowd. I think Australia would have won.

Now we must wait to discover if recent New Zealand victories indicate a considerable improvement in Kiwi Soccer strength. That's a pity.

As usual, New Zealand will form one of the hurdles to be cleared by Australia in the elimination games for the 1982 World Cup. For that reason alone, an Australia v New Zealand match in this country would have been most valuable.

Meet the Visitors....WEST ADELAIDE

The West Adelaide team will be fighting today for a top four place, so there is no chance they will take things easily against Marconi.

West Adelaide have had plenty of problems with injuries this year. In particular they missed the outstanding talents of Neil McGachey, victim of a broken leg. Had McGachey been available, West Adelaide might now be challenging Marconi for top spot in the PSL.

As premiers last year, the team must be respected. Jim Adam, the coach who took the team to last year's championship, surprisingly left at the start of this year to coach Apia.

The present team is coached by Irishman Tom Forde, a former player with West Adelaide. Forde also coached West Adelaide some years ago so he is now back in his old job.

It is Marconi's pleasure to welcome West Adelaide to Marconi Stadium today.

MARTYN CROOK: (Goalkeeper) — Rated number two in Australia behind Greg Woodhouse. English-born Crook had a spell with Middlesbrough in the English first division. World Cup probable.

BARRY REYNOLDS: (Right-back) — One of the best in the Philips League, Reynolds is unlucky to have missed out on national honours. Eight years with West Adelaide.

CON KAMBAS: (Defender) — Likely to return to day after serving a three-match suspension. Played international for Greece and came to Australia in 1978.

DAVID JONES: (Centre-half) — Surprisingly rejected by Rudi Gutendorf for the Australian team although he was rated a natural successor to Peter Wilson. Age 23 and product of West Australian Soccer.

PETER BOYLE: (Midfield) — Without doubt one of the most accomplished players in the Philips League. A Scot, he played for Clyde in the Scottish first division before emigrating. Solid worker.

STEVE ATSALAS: (Midfield or Striker) — One of West Adelaide's many talented youngsters. Has bright future.

GRAHAM NORRIS: (Striker) — Signed by West Adelaide from Sydney's Western Suburbs. A fiery centre-forward, who has occasionally been in trouble with referees. Scores vital goals.

GRAHAM HONEYMAN: (Midfield or Striker) — Came to Australia to play for Hakoah (Sydney) but was allowed to leave when West Adelaide made a transfer bid. Good in the air. A Scotsman.

IAN MCGREGOR: (Winger) — Has played for South Australian State team several times. Short, but a dangerous attacker. Only 22, he is in his sixth year with the club.

GARY DOOLEY: (Midfield) — Bought from Polonia in the S.A. State League. Tall and very promising player. Member of S.A. State training squad.

MARCELINO FERNANDEZ: (Forward) — Outstanding ball skills, typical of his South American background. Signed from Steel United in Whyalla when both West Adelaide and Adelaide City sought his services.

PETER TYMSZYSYN: (Defender) — This 24 year old has played consistently well for the team and is difficult to pass. Developed in South Australian junior Soccer.

GEORGE KOULIANOS: (Midfield) — Just 19, this youngster is another product of S.A. junior Soccer. Has come under scrutiny by Rudi Gutendorf for the national youth team. Played for S. A. Schools XI.

NICK PANTSAROS: (Full-back) — West Adelaide fans rate this 20 year old a player with a great future. Has deputised for Barry Reynolds in recent matches.

JOHN BACHELOR: (Utility Player) — Another young local who has benefited from junior Soccer coaching. Scored equalising goal against Brisbane Lions. Plays anywhere.

JOHN KOSMINA: (Forward) — Best-known player in the side, having represented Australia many times. Spent one season with Arsenal in English first division. Now keen to regain place in Australia's World Cup team.

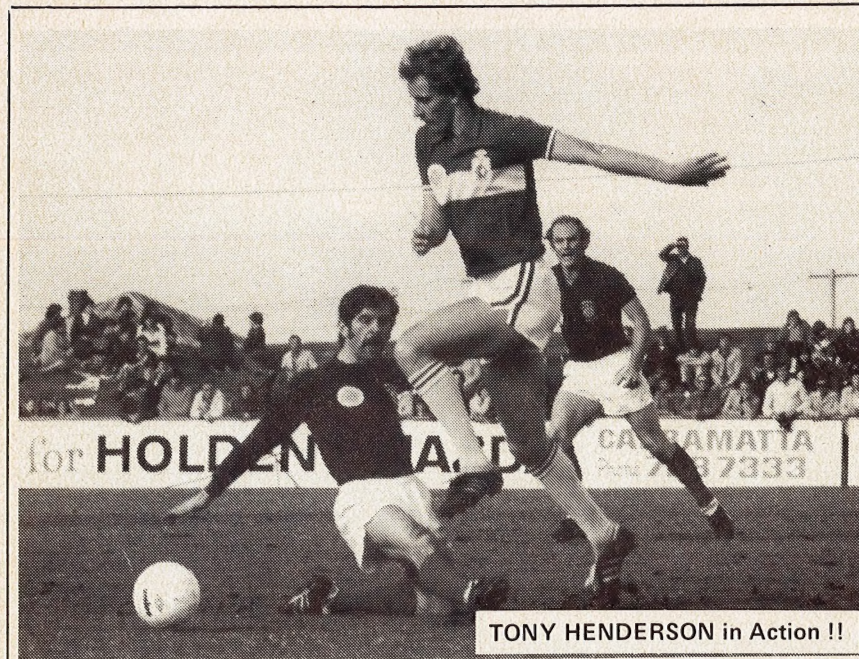

SAM SERVICE: (Goalkeeper) — Long-serving goalie possessing huge experience. Played for South Melbourne and also the Victorian State side.

DAVE PILLANS: (Striker) — Tall, elegant, player whose business commitments caused him to miss many matches in 1978, West Adelaide's championship year. Plays equally well in midfield. Played last Sunday after being off for some time with injury.
